AACC Groovy Gumboot Competition
Enter and WIN!

AgForce and The Australian Agricultural College Corporation (AACC) invite Queensland school students of all ages to participate in the 2010 AACC Groovy Gumboot Competition. Students are invited to design and decorate a gumboot of any size and colour, so that it reflects a relationship to the rural sector. The most creative Gumboot entries will be displayed at The MEATing Centre, Commerce Pavilion, RNA Showground from 5-14 August.

The MEATing Centre is held each year at the Brisbane Ekka, and provides an opportunity for everyone to experience where their food and fibre comes from and to see why Every Family Needs a Farmer. The MEATing Centre showcases the importance of Queensland’s red meat, grains and wool industries.

AgForce represents the important Queensland industries of beef cattle, sheep and wool and grains. The AACC offers a wide range of full time, part time and short courses across Queensland. AACC’s flexible approach provides solutions for school and campus based students and for trainees and existing workers in the agricultural industry.

To Participate

The Groovy Gumboot Competition is open to Queensland school-age students in three different categories:

- Category 1: Primary - Years 1 - 5
- Category 2: Middle School - Years 6 - 9
- Category 3: High school - Years 10 - 12

To WIN!!

First place winners will win:-

- Category 1. A Blue Heeler plush replica, plus your school will receive a set of 4 fantastic Workboot Series books on wheat, wool, vegetables and chicken.

- Category 2. An Ariat gear bag and Whip, plus your school will receive a set of 4 fantastic Workboot Series books on wheat, wool, vegetables and chicken.

- Category 3. An RM Williams gift voucher to the value of $300.

Plus three finalists in category 3 will receive a 2010 TASTE experience.

All category winners receive a trophy

The Workboot Series books are a collection of innovative resources that help children discover the origins of their food and clothing and learn about Australia’s primary industries.

TASTE is a program for Year 10, 11 and 12 students held at three campuses of the Australian Agricultural College Corporation (AACC) during the September school holidays. The four-day program is designed to help young people explore agricultural training opportunities and engage in training for different types of careers in the rural industry.
