2009 winning entry: Sunset at RG Tanna Coal Terminal by Wendy Roscoe

Iconic Queensland Infrastructure category

Please read all the information below carefully. You must sign the declaration and attach it to each submission. One form per entry must be completed.

Conditions of entry

• Entry into the competition is free and unlimited. Entry is open to all persons who have been resident in Queensland since on or before 1 December 2009.
• The competition closes at 5 pm Australian Eastern Standard Time, Wednesday 30 June 2010 (the “Closing Date”) and any entries received after the Closing Date will not be accepted. No responsibility is accepted for late, lost, delayed, misdirected or incomplete entries.

Entrants

• All submitted images must have been taken by the entrant. An entrant must be one or more individuals. A company, organisation or association is not eligible to enter.
• Entries from people aged less than 18 years of age (as at 30 June 2010) must have signed adult consent. Prizes will be awarded to the adult providing such consent.

Images

• Category descriptions are available at www.dip.qld.gov.au/captureqld
• Queensland Government photo contest forms are required for any shots where people can be identified. Any images submitted without a release form are not eligible for the competition. Queensland Government release forms are available at www.dip.qld.gov.au/captureqld. You indemnify the Queensland Government against all damages, losses, costs and expenses incurred and arising out of you failing to submit a relevant release.
• Standard image requirements: all entries must be high resolution—at least 300DPI—with a size value no less than A4—3600 x 2400 pixels or 8 x 12 inches. Images that do not meet these minimum quality standard will not be considered eligible for the competition. Further information can be found at www.dip.qld.gov.au/captureqld
• Photographs should have been taken at any time from 1 October 2009 until the Closing Date.
• Only photographs taken in Queensland will be accepted. Photographs of public art or any other material that is subject to copyright must have the artist’s or author’s permission.
• Images that are considered of an offensive nature and/or depict or involve an illegal activity, will be rejected.
• Entries must be submitted via CD-ROM or email. More than one image may be placed on each CD-ROM. No images submitted in hard copy will be accepted.
• Please send copies only. Do not send original material as submissions will not be returned.
• You acknowledge that the judges and administrators of this competition may from time to time temporarily store your images on their computers for judging and administration purposes only.
Queensland environment and residents should not be stressed, endangered or damaged in anyway to produce the photo.

The Queensland Government will not be liable for any misadventure, accident, injury, loss or claim that may occur as a result of the participant’s entry into the competition.

By signing this entry form, you agree to grant the Queensland Government an irrevocable, royalty free licence in perpetuity to use, copy and publish in whole or in part your submission (including photographs and any written text) or any part of it. Queensland Government may publish your work including but not limited to any materials including postcards, posters, in public displays, on websites or in other publications, printed or digital or any other media now known or hereafter devised.

Prizes

Chance plays no part in determining the winner. Each entry will be individually judged on merit. Judges’ decisions will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

The Queensland Government reserves the right to notify and publish short-listed, winners’ and runners’-up images and names on the Department of Infrastructure and Planning website from 5 August 2010 onwards.

Only one prize will be awarded per winning and runner up entry, irrespective of the number of individuals that make up that entry.

All prizes will be distributed after the announcement of the winners and runners up at the Major Projects Conference on 19 October 2010.

Submissions

Submissions must include a fully completed and signed entry form. A separate entry form must be completed for each image. Incomplete submissions will not be accepted.

Personal details collected on the entry form will only be used for the purposes of this competition. Private information will not be given to any individual or organisation except where the entrant's consent is obtained or required by law.

Each entry must be entered in accordance with these conditions. Signing the entry form constitutes acceptance of these conditions.

The Queensland Government reserves the right to verify the validity of entries and to disqualify any entrant who tampers with the entry process or submits an entry that is not in accordance with these terms and conditions.

To the full extent permitted by law, the Queensland Government will not be liable for any injury, damages, expenses or loss whatsoever (whether direct or inconsequential) to persons or property as a result of any person entering into this competition or accepting or using any prize, including without limitation non-receipt of any prize or damage to any prize in transit.
